TSC Is College Life

A college is people. People studying, working, playing, living in an established social framework.

Troy State College is administration, faculty, staff, and student body participating in the process of higher education.

Yet each of the nearly 3000
persons making the total
Troy State, is unique—an individual—seeking by social interaction—to develop the human personality—self.

Freshmen Met Challenges of College Through

Orientation . . .

Unpacking was first order of business.

"Come on girls, you can do it."

Each Fall, freshmen begin their college career with a very active and hectic week—orientation. College policies, information from varied sources, and other data, is given. Through it all, new friendships are made, and college life begins.

Campus tours proved worthwhile.

New friendships were made quickly.

and Rat Week.

Fun, Fun, Fun!

Barbara Melton and Butch Cauthen were "honored" as Queen and King Rats.

The first Rat Week at Troy State was a great success. Early morning exercises, the Rat Parade, Rat Court, election of Queen and King Rat, and pep rallies were part of the clean fun enjoyed by all.

Meetings, meetings and more meetings.

Rats have dates?

Locating a required text was often difficult.

Machines unbalanced our bank-books.

Registration and Book-Buying Complemented Every Quarter . . .

Registration resulted in an accumulation of problems. Many hours were spent filling in the necessary cards and standing in the many lines. Then the mad rush to obtain books and watch the dollars add up.

Lines seemed to have no end!

Trial schedules were always fun.

. . . and Classroom Rituals Were Resumed.

Students at last believed they were ready for class. The first few days were a combination of dismay and anticipation, sometimes interrupted by sheer excitement. Eventually life becomes routine, and classes assume their proper perspective.

While some stood in line, others found more enjoyable pastimes.

First lectures were always hard to follow.

Classes Required Adequate and Concentrated Study . . .

At last, class is over and I'm through for the day!

Classes predominated the lives of students. Courses in many subjects and fields were offered. Students soon learned that class was much easier if they had spent time in preparation. Note-taking was also necessary to obtain the maximum return from hours spent in lectures.

Notetaking required a quick hand.

Not all classes were confined to the classroom.

Informal teacher-pupil discussions were always helpful.

. . . for Desired Product.

Preparation for classes was channeled through various resource facilities. The library was crowded with students looking for a quiet place to study. The opinions and criticisms of fellow students were always helpful. Wherever and however students study, college required much work to obtain the desired proficiency in chosen areas of study.

. . . and Variety.

Troy State celebrated Homecoming on November 23, with a gala parade highlighting the week-end. Halftime of the game with Florence State brought the crowning of the 1965 Homecoming Queen, Miss Judy Sawyer. A dance Saturday night provided the grand finale to Homecoming 1965.

Queen Judy Sawyer and her court led parade.

. . . Thrills

SGA President Harrison presented Dill Hall President, Ronnie Ammons, the plaque for winning decoration.

Floats added much to the parade.

Holidays Provided New Spirit.

Holidays provided an opportunity to get away from the hustle and bustle of college, to relax and to enjoy favorite pastimes. The holiday spirit actually began days in advance. We became lazy and carefree, waiting for noon on Friday. Home, beaches, jobs and other retreats waited in the outside world. Left behind were memories and a deserted campus.

Some always had late classes

Many happy hours were spent in P.C.

Holidays spread an emptiness over the campus.

Santa always adds to the Christmas spirit

The Playmakers acquaint students with the art of play production through participation in actual performances and expose students to works of literary significance through the presentation of good drama.

During this school year the Playmakers presented two plays—"THE SPIDER," a melodrama typical of the genre popular during the Twenties, and Tennessee Williams' "THE GLASS MENAGERIE," which starred Julie Haydon of the original Broadway cast.

The Playmakers also assist visiting theatrical groups and present outstanding motion pictures of great plays.

Orbison Headed SGA Entertainment

Roy Orbison

The Four Lads

Each quarter the S.G.A. brought top name entertainment to the campus. Roy Orbison the popular rock and roll artist, headed the bill appearing January 18, in Sartain Hall. With Orbison was his great band "The Candymen." Other top stars appearing included The Town Criers and The Four Lads.

The Town Criers

Lyceum Series Brought Top Artists

The Lyceum Committee, under Dr. Brooks Thompson, provided top entertainment throughout the year. The musical, "Brigadoon," a touching love story combining fantasy, romance, and comedy was presented on October 4 by the Town and Gown Theater of Birmingham. Jose Molinas and his Spanish dance troupe and modern day Troubadour, Varel and Bailly Chanteurs de Paris were other outstanding groups sponsored by the Lyceum Committee. The "Noted Alabamians" programs featuring outstanding leaders from Alabama was also under the auspices of the Lyceum Committee.

Student Center — Scene of Many Activities.

All paths led to the Student Center.

No other building at TSC was the scene of such a variety of activities as the Student Center in Smith Hall. Whether it was to shop in the bookstore, to check the mail, grab a quick snack, or just to relax, most of the 2700 students could be found here at some time during the day.

It was always fun to look, even if the merchandise didn't fit.

Occasionally one managed to study.

And some even read the grocery ads.

After nine o'clock the usually lively Student Center became a calm void.

Mail was checked several times daily.

Chamber of Commerce Shows Appreciation to College.

The city of Troy Chamber of Commerce shows their appreciation to Troy State in many ways. Each fall Appreciation Day and Band Day is held with a gala parade highlighting the festivities. A covered dish supper for the faculty and other activities are held during Appreciation Week.

The annual C of C Basketball Tournament is one of the top features of the Red Wave basketball season. Top teams from around the nation annually appear to make this one of the outstanding small college attractions in the South.

Troy State won the C of C Tourney beating Ohio Northern University in the finals. Mars Hill College took third place by beating Wm. Carey College.

The Queen's float in the Appreciation Day parade received top attention.

All ages enjoyed and participated in the parade.

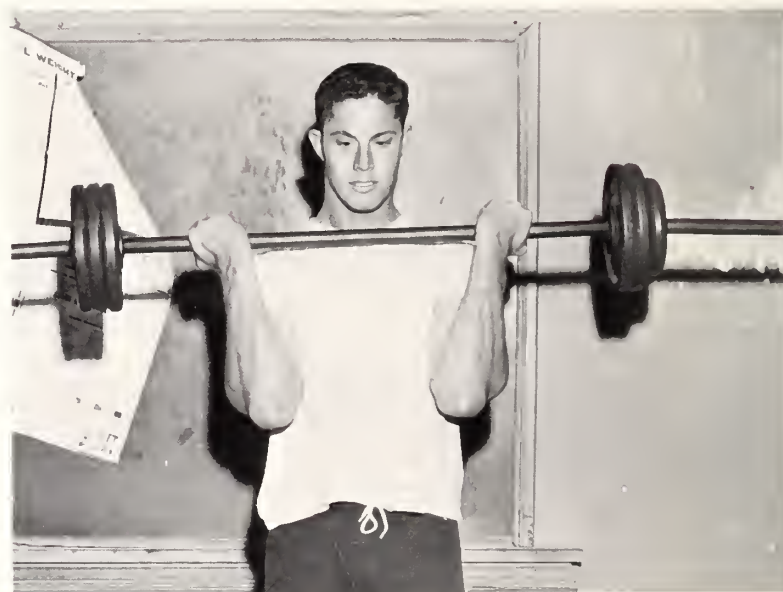

Miss Carol Stringfellow, 1965 Basketball Queen, and her court served as hostesses for the annual C of C Basketball Tournament. Pictured above, Miss Stringfellow, Miss Jenny Clark, Miss Mary Deese, and Miss Margaret Jenkins.

Band Day Highlighted annual Appreciation Day on November 6, 1965.

Recreation Facilities

Weight room was used by many seeking a better physique.

As long as there were idle hours, students found ways to spend them. Tables provided were always crowded by card demons seeking to match their skills. The college pool offered a cool refresher during the warmer months. Tennis and handball courts were far too few to match the interested participants. Many found enjoyment on the college golf course while others participated in a variety of intramural activities.

Card games occupied many idle hours.

Were Popular During Leisure Time.

The Student Government Association serves as the coordinator between student body, faculty, and administration. Through S.G.A., students handle their budget, rules, and business matters. Offices are filled by campus elections which leave the running of the government to the student body. Divided into three parts, the Student Government resembles the federal system.

This year a new constitution gave the senate a speaker whose new position lightens the load of the president. In addition to his duties as Chairman of the senate the vice president of the Student Government coordinates weekend entertainment.

Performers highlighted every school year, and the Student Government worked hard to insure that this year would be no exception. Roy Orbison, the Town Criers, and the Four Lads headlined the first two quarters entertainment. Free movies were provided on the week-ends. Sock hops, as well as formal dances, kept the students entertained during the year.

Lawmaking in the SGA rests in the hands of the Student Senate. Three senators from each class along with the married, commuter, and dormitory representatives compose this branch.

Meeting bi-monthly, the legislature makes rules and regulations applicable to the college student body. Aside from acting as a law-making organization, this body is in charge of making all monetary appropriations to extracurricular student activities. The Senate also governs all student elections.

Gardner Won Annual Skit Night

Officers: Amanda Johns, Louise Hollingsworth, Janis Christian, and Mary Dunford.

The Catherine Collins Gardner Hall was opened in 1962. It is an air-conditioned hall for women with rooms to accomodate one hundred twenty-two residents.

The social room is the family room at Gardner with its TV and kitchen where the girls are allowed to prepare snacks. When there comes a pause in their work on term papers and tests, there is constant activity in the kitchen.

Gardner Hall has four assistants and five unit leaders. Twelve desk girls are on duty from 7:30 in the morning until the dormitory closes at night. There is a President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, and a social chairman. The officers, assistants, unit leaders, and house director compose the House Council, which is the policy making body of the residence hall.

The annual skit night which was sponsored by the SGA was won by Gardner Hall for its presentation of the "Hokey Pokey."

Gardner Hall Staff: Louise Hollingsworth, Mrs. Doris Foster, Carroll McDaniel, Betty Roberts, and Dana Kay Marshall

House Director: Mrs. Doris Foster

Housing 146 girls, beautiful Loraine Estelle Hamil Hall is the most modern dormitory on the Troy State College campus. These school-spirited young ladies claim the titles of Homecoming Queen, Christmas Queen, Appreciation Day Queen, Campus Beauty, President of Women's Judiciary, President of Women's Executive Council, Secretary of the SGA, two sorority presidents, and seven Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities nominees.

Exemplifying high ideals, thinking of others, and upholding the social graces, these girls also place importance on scholastic achievements and participation in various campus activities.

Dorm Officers: Miss Jo Salter, Director; Connie Free, Vice President; Marie Frazier, President; Mary John Garrett, Secretary.

Shackelford Hall is the oldest girls dormitory on campus and is the home for freshman girls. The girls have taken their places in all college activities. During the year, girls from Shackelford Hall were recognized in the Beauty Contest, Class Favorites, Best Dressed Girl Contest, and many other functions of personal recognition.

In addition to the girls from Alabama, there are 10 other states represented. Historically, Shackelford Hall has been the center of activity and the place where most of the students gather, because of its friendly atmosphere.

Assistants: Seated: Elaine Smith, Miss Salter, Qualeen Whitehead, Shirley Talley; Standing: Mary Deese, Gayle Presley, and Sharlyn Smith.

Clements Under New Direction

James Burns Clements Hall is predominately the upperclassmen's dormitory at Troy State College. It is comparatively new, opening in the fall of 1963 and has since consistently made itself recognized as the most outstanding men's dormitory on campus. The men of Clements Hall are proud of the traditions they have established with able administrators and resident leaders of tomorrow. Especially noteworthy are the House Council, with its purpose of developing Clements Hall as an integral part of the Troy State College program, and the Judicial Committee, with its purpose of fostering student self-government and maintaining high standards of moral and social conduct for the residents of Clements Hall. Clements Hall has also established a dormitory-wide newspaper, a dormitory seal, and a written constitution.

Staff: D. King, T. Talton, B. Cary, R. Tuggle, E. Eubanks, J. Thrower, W. Wilks, J. Goatmolluer, W. Brown, P. Ashler, A. Gibson, W. Brigance, B. Gamble.

Joseph Macon Dill Hall was opened as a Freshman men's residence hall in 1958. In the Fall of 1963, it was changed to an upperclassman hall. Since its opening, it has proven to be an asset to Troy State College.

Under fine leadership, many things that benefit the residents have been accomplished. To cite a few examples; a dorm library was established, a color television set was acquired, a dormitory conference room was provided, a regular weekly newspaper published, and a recreation area and equipment was furnished. These accomplishments are enhanced by trophies that were won in campuswide competition this past year. Dill Hall placed first in three out of four events and second in the fourth.

This residence hall has attempted to make an outstanding contribution to the over-all program at Troy State College, and has as its goal to contribute even more in future years.

Mathew Downer Pace Hall was again occupied by an overflowing number of men—some 300 first-quarter Freshmen and 50 staff members, Argonauts, and their room-mates during 1965-66.

The Freshmen showed great promise as they entered the educational, cultural, and recreational activities on campus. The relative stability of residence in Pace—despite the increase in quality point retention requirements—indicates the continued improvement in the ability of the entering Freshmen at our college.

With the extra space provided by the new men's residence hall, Pace will be remodeled and used as a girls' dormitory next fall quarter.

Palladium Staff Faced Problems Regularly.

Editor John McKay pauses before making final arrangements for copy shipment.

Interest in publications and in capturing the year by year history of the college draws many students to the PALLADIUM office. At the start of the year, all staff members had separate jobs to perform; but by the time deadline had rushed upon them, they had done a little of everything. The finished product is not the individual efforts of four or five, but the combined work of all members.

Layout was a problem for those who were doing it for the first time. There were many rules they had to learn about preparation of copy.

Once the pictures and copy were fitted on each layout page, there came the job of writing headlines for the pages and cutlines for the pictures. Many little things took up the time schedule. Sometimes ideas would not come, or the typewriters were all busy. Finally each frustration was surmounted and each deadline met. At last all the material was in, and the wait for the return of the finished product began.

Mr. Wallace Waites finds the telephone always useful in the capacity of faculty advisor.

"The Sound of the South" is the descriptive name Director John M. Long chose for the 100-piece Red Wave Marching Band. The band has been one of the greatest spirit builders on campus this year. Wherever the football team was, the band was there also with its familiar strains of "Dixie", "Rocking Chair", "Audabon Blues", and "Lazy River Twist." They have thrilled audiences all over the Southeast with their spectacular halftime shows. The members are outfitted in red and black military type uniforms complete with white berets ornamented in front by small Confederate flags.

Christmas holidays brought little rest for the band. They spent days rehearsing for the ten-minute halftime show as the feature unit in the famed Blue-Gray all-star Bowl game Christmas Day. This show was carried coast-to-coast on CBS television.

The band also traveled the streets of New Orleans as they performed in the King Rex parade during Mardi Gras.

Concert season substantiated the band not only superior as a marching corps, but also as serious musicians. The difficult "Overture 1812", "Impresario", and highlights from "The Sound of Music", were just a few of their numbers.

Truly, with their personal appearances, concerts, parades, and home on our own field, the title "Sound of the South" has proved its worth.

"The emphasis in our marching band," Long said, "is on quality playing and precise marching. We want military quality in both

Music Performances Reflected Variety

The Collegiate Singers under the Direction of Dr. Charles V. Farmer.

The Troy State College Collegiate Singers is a select group of eighty voices under the Direction of Dr. Charles V. Farmer. Their variety of performances have included a fall program for homecoming; the Christmas season brought campus and televised performances. Also this year, they taped a Christmas program for the Mutual Broadcasting Company as one of the top twenty choral groups in the nation. This tape was played in a nationwide series of thirty minute recordings. Spring brought a televised Easter program and a college promotion tour composed of performances of both religious and secular music.

The New Wavemen have enjoyed a very prosperous year after their re-organization by Mr. Johnny Long. Under the capable leadership of Rod Henley, the band has soared to great heights playing many high schools, clubs, conventions, colleges, civic and social affairs in all parts of the state as well as Mississippi, Georgia and Florida. The Wavemen presentation of fine music, beautiful ballads, and old standards is a great cause for rejoicing in a time when big bands themselves have just about disappeared.

Rebuilding Red Wave Posted 1-8 Record.

The 1965 football season was a disappointing one for Coach Bill Clipson and his staff. The Red Wave eleven was not able to get into the victory column until the final game of the season against the La. College Bulldogs. Hurt by inexperience and injuries, Coach Clipson shuffled his starting lineup through the season trying to find a winning combination. Even though meeting defeat after defeat, the coaching staff and team faced each game with the same winning desire and spirit.

Outstanding for the Red Wave this past year were Charlie Dowdell, whose leadership influenced all, Troy Lamb, Jimmy Kirby, Norm Langlois, Benny Rex Johnson, Dwight Faulk, and Doug Jackson. Promising freshmen included Don Hatcher, Larry Jones, Wayne Crowder, and Jim Bardon.

Loggins stops Bulldog runner for no gain.

Howard Tops Red Wave 37-6

Troy State opened the 1965 football season with a loss to the Howard College Bulldogs of Birmingham. Howard, paced by freshman quarterback Jerry Calvin, jumped off to a 7-0 lead early in the game. Calvin completed 7-13 passes for 218 yards and 3 touchdowns. Troy's only score came on a 6 yard pass from quarterback Jackie Hines to end Larry Jones of Greenville.

Tigers Rip Troy — 47-3

Troy could manage only a field goal by kicking specialist Danny Moore as the Red Wave fell to A.C.C. rival L.S.C. Troy threatened twice but could not score. The heavy air barrage by quarterback Carvell Rowell proved to be the deciding factor in the game. Rowell completed 13-25 passes for 175 yards and 3 touchdowns. Moore's 3-pointer came in the second quarter when the Red Wave was down 19-0. The kick covered 25 yards.

Troy Nipped by Jax 9-7

Troy scored early in the game and nearly hung on, but a 6 yard pass with 12 seconds left in the game, once again spelled defeat for coach Bill Clipson's Red Wave. Troy's seven points came on a 5-yard run by senior halfback Ray Kicklighter in the second period. Danny Moore kicked the point. Troy played its best game of the year as they stopped the A.C.C. champs on four occasions. Leading 7-3 after a 28-yard field goal by Bruce Peck.

Delta Sinks Troy — 26-0

Troy dropped number four to strong Delta State 26-0 in Cleveland, Miss. Troy held the Nationally ranked Statesmen to a pair of field goals after long drives, and three touchdowns. The field goals covered 36 and 35 yards. Troy was in the Statesmen territory three times and could not manage a scoring threat.

Choctaws Slug Red Wave — 35-15

Mississippi College, led by halfback Jerry Hele outscored the Red Wave 35-15 in a game played in Clinton, Miss. Hele collected 89 yards rushing on 5 carries to top all rushers. Troy downed 35-7 scored its last touchdown as reserve quarterback Dowis Johnson ran and passed the Red Wave for a score. Troy's other touchdown came in the third period when halfback Troy Lamb picked off a Mississippi College pass and returned it 78 yards for a touchdown. The loss left Troy with a 0-5 record and no chance of a winning season.

Lions Spoil Homecoming 35-16

Troy dropped another game as the Florence State Lions defeated them in the homecoming battle 35-16. Florence State, led by halfback George Perkins carried the pigskin for 165 yards and 2 touchdowns. Florence raced for 368 yards on the ground, while Troy State could manage only 140. This was the third and last conference game for the Red Wave and they finished the season 0-3 in the A.C.C. Jimmy Kirby, was Troy's leading rusher with 56 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Red Wave Shut Out by Blue Hose — 21-0

The Presbyterian Blue Hose shut out Dr. Bill Clipson's Red Wave 21-0. Presbyterian riding a 13-game winning streak at home were too much for Troy. Troy State on two occasions had a chance to score, but due to a pass interception and a fumble saw the chance dwindle away. Sophomore full-back John Pittman was Troy's leading rusher with 48 yards. The loss left Troy State with a 0-7 record for the year.

Vols Outlast Red Wave — 20-6

Troy State jumped off to enter the start with a touchdown in the first period but opened the door in the last half for three Vol TD'S. Troy's touchdown came on a 2 yard run by Dowis Johnson. The visiting Vols scored twice in the third period and added another in the fourth. Staying mostly on the ground they racked up 198 yards rushing. Troy's leading rusher for the game was Jimmy Kirby with 66 yards.

Red Wave Win Finale — 10-7

Troy State jumped off to a 10-0 lead and hung on for victory number one and a 10-7 win over Louisiana College. Jimmy Kirby was the heart of the Troy attack with 122 yards rushing. Troy had 217 yards rushing, the team high for the year. Our touchdown came in the second period on a 2 yard run by quarterback Jackie Hines. Danny Moore added the point and a 34 yard field goal later in the quarter. Louisiana College scored in the fourth period on a 7 yard pass. They threatened once more, but the stout Red Wave defense held them. The game ended in a 15 minute free-for-all but finally was contained. The victory left Troy State with a 1-8 record, and almost a reversal of the 1964 record. Two weeks after this game, Troy coach Bill Clipson announced his resignation.

TSC Added New Intercollegiate Sport

This year saw the addition of a new intercollegiate sport, wrestling. Scheduling was one of the major problems for the TSC matmen. No other ACC schools had teams except Athens College. Because of this the Red Wave had to face such opposition as the Auburn Frosh, Ga. Tech Frosh, and FSU. The season's 5-4 record was much better than it sounds with all four defeats coming from the Auburn Freshmen.

The cross-country team under Coach Nicholas Costes posted a 14-8 record during the past season. Included in the record was a first place in a four team meet at Alabama College. The only team to win more than once against TSC was Pensacola College. The Pirates won four meets while the Red Wave finished second in the five team meets. The Red Wave runners also placed third behind a strong University of Tennessee team and Auburn in the annual C of C meet on December 1.

Governor Wallace Gave Outstanding Leadership

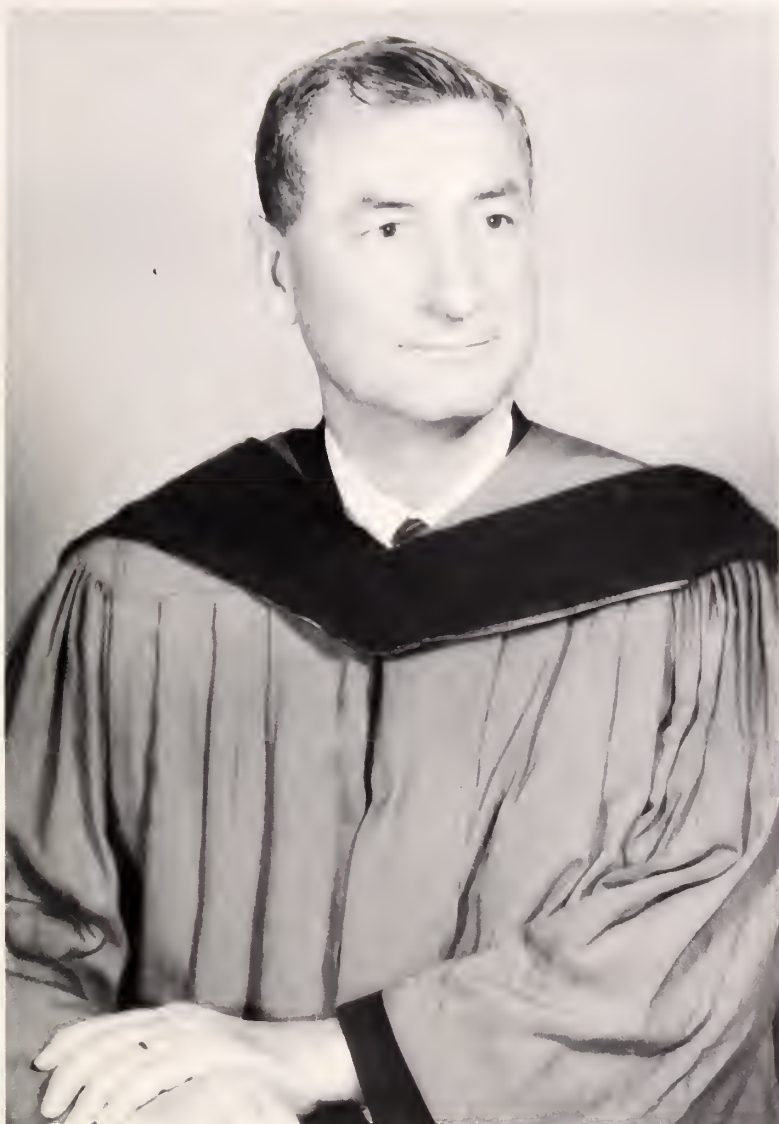

ALABAMA'S FIRST FAMILY

Mrs. George Wallace, George, Jr.,
Peggy Sue, Governor George C.
Wallace, and Janie Lee

George C. Wallace will go down in history as the greatest educational governor the State has ever had. Under his leadership, monumental advances have taken place in education during the last three years. Teachers' salaries have been increased by more than one-third, resulting in Alabama's moving from near the bottom to near the top in the Southern States.

The $116 million bond issue was the largest in the history of the State and will result in the greatest school building program ever established in Alabama. This bond issue will enable Troy State College to almost double its investment in buildings. As much will be invested in buildings at Troy State College within the next three or four years as has been invested in the previous seventy-five.

As enrollment soars and space for the college to grow becomes an increasing problem at Troy State, Dr. Ralph Adams is constantly called upon to meet the demands of a dynamic student body.

Since President Adams accepted his duties in October, 1964, the TSC populace has seen the construction and renovation of dormitories on campus and has heard plans for a new library, better dining hall facilities, and an addition to McCall Hall.

His previous experiences as teacher, lawyer, and the Alabama Director of Selective Services certainly are extra ingredients which have enabled him to carry out his duties so well. He received his A.B. degree from Birmingham-Southern and his LLB degree from the University of Alabama in 1940. He was also presented an honorary doctorate from the University of Alabama in August, 1965.

President Adams Works for a Better Troy State.

As any student of TSC knows, expanding the external features of our college is not Dr. Adams' only task. He is always willing to help solve any problem that a student has no matter how small it may seem and always exercises his out-going personality as one meets him around campus.

Dr. Adams has as his message for the students this prayer from St. Francis of Assisi, which he has adopted as a capstone of life and hopes that you will do likewise.

"Lord, make me the instrument of Thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love: for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life."

President Adams' wide experiences always made the student enjoy a conversation with him.

Mrs. Martha Rose, the President's secretary, keeps the administrative portion of the President's Office running smoothly. Although her daily schedule is filled with many important duties that keep her occupied throughout the day, she still finds the time to welcome any student into the congenial atmosphere of the most important office on our campus.

Mrs. Martha Rose, secretary in the President's office for 23 years, seems to enjoy her work.

Dr. Adams and Mrs. Rose are constantly occupied with correspondence of the president's office.

Academic Program Led by Dean Boyd

Dr. G. R. Boyd, a very influential man around our campus, became Dean of the college in 1947. He earned his B.S. degree from Western Kentucky State Teachers College and his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Kentucky. Dr. Boyd, an interesting speaker, is well known for his humorous poems and stories, such as the "Suitcase Parade." He dedicates himself to coordinating, interpreting, and leading the comprehensive program of instruction at Troy State College.

Dean G. R. Boyd performs duties necessary to keeping our academic program running smoothly.

Indicative of the warmth and enthusiasm which Dean Boyd possesses is his pleasant smile.

Dean Gibbs Heads Student Personnel

Miss Annette Gibbs came to Troy State in 1962 and was appointed Dean of Students in 1965. She received her B.S. degree from Florence State College and her internship and M.A. degree from Ohio University. As Dean of Students she is Director of Student Personnel, which includes supervision of the infirmary, dining hall, all residence halls, guidance services, the placement bureau and the director of student activities. Miss Gibbs is constantly working for the students and is a progressive individual who is ready to modernize old methods of educating students.

Miss Gibbs is stopped on the way to one of her many meetings.

Miss Annette Gibbs, Dean of Students, can always find time to interrupt her business schedule to help a student.

The many jobs of the Student Person Office keep the clerical staff working full time. Below are Mrs. Jacqueline Crawley, Nedra Wilson, Gloria Hughes, and Mrs. Laurie Revel.

Student Personnel Perform Important Duties

Student Personnel Services at Troy State include the work of the Dean of Women, the Dean of Men, the Director of Student Activities, and the Director of Guidance Services. Every young woman who enters TSC will be directly or indirectly influenced by the work of Mrs. Ann Harmon, Dean of Women.

Dean of Men, Robert Williford, pauses before entering his office.

F. Lanier Vines deliberates on a point in his duties as Director of Testing and Counseling.

Mr. Robert Williford, Dean of Men, is concerned with the policies and problems of TSC's men students. Besides serving as financial aids officer, Mr. Eugene Sherman coordinates all student activities, and the broad program of guidance and counseling on the campus is directed by Mr. F. Lanier Vines.

Eugene H. Sherman, Director of Student Activities, checks over a matter concerning a student.

Dean of Women, Ann Harmon, relaxes after a Student Personnel meeting.

Mr. Stabler makes many telephone calls concerning the financial obligations of the college.

Secretaries handle all correspondence relating to the Business Office's activities.

The pay window—always a busy place.

Business Office Controls Finance

In the materialistic world of 1966, success cannot be separated from finances. This is true even in the world of college administrations, and one of TSC's administrators, Mr. Clay Stabler, the Business Manager, is basic to the effective functioning of the college. Under his supervision the complicated round of collecting and distributing all college funds is reduced to a seemingly uncomplicated, smoothly functioning operation.

Mr. Robert Wakefield, Assistant Business Manager, performs such duties as supervision of student accounts, purchasing and payroll.

Mr. Wakefield's conversations with students usually concern finances.

Registrar, Miss Bess McCann, checks the files for information concerning a TSC graduate.

Academic Records Handled by Registrar's Office

Miss Bess McCann, Registrar, and Mr. Jeff McClain, who is in charge of admissions, combine their efforts to keep the Registrar's Office functioning smoothly. Some of the many duties of the Registrar's Office are handling the records of all transfer students, distributing students' grades, and keeping permanent records of all students.

The Registrar's Office is a continuous beehive of activity.

Mr. Jeff McClain, Director of Admissions, looks over the transcript of a possible student.

Staff Coordinates College Activities

Mr. Roy Jeffcoat, Director of Special Services, prepares for the annual Homecoming.

Mr. Roy Jeffcoat coordinates the program of off campus extension centers and promotes college activities through contacts with alumni. One of the busiest men on campus, Dr. R. C. Kennedy, serves TSC in three official capacities—he is Director of Public Relations, head of the News Bureau, and Director of Student Employment. Among the many duties of Mr. Jimmy Clark, who heads the I.B.M. Office, are the preparation of grades, compiling the directory of students, and the processing of class cards during registration. In order to help seniors secure jobs now and in the future, Mrs. Erin Teal in the Placement Office keeps an active file on each student who graduates from TSC.

Checking one of the many job applications is Dr. R. C. Kennedy, Director of Public Relations and Student Employment.

Mrs. Erin Teal of the Placement office is always ready to help students locate the best possible job.

The fast growing I.B.M. office is under the supervision of Mr. Jimmy Clark.

Mr. O. W. Bickel heads the effective Buildings and Grounds Department.

Mrs. Leigh Watkins supervises building care at Troy State.

B and G Maintains Campus Beauty

The TSC Buildings and Grounds Department, under the supervision of Mr. O. W. Bickel, is responsible for maintaining the comfort of the students and the beauty of the campus. Much of the smooth functioning of the college program is dependent upon the behind-the-scenes work of Mr. Bickel, Mr. Carter, and Mrs. Watkins.

The friendly Campus Police handle all parking violations, encourage adherence to traffic laws, and thus maintain an atmosphere of comfortable protection.

Mr. Melton Carter, Assistant Superintendent, answers the call for needed repairs.

The night duty officers are Mr. Ernest Williams and Mr. Morris Tew.

Relaxing before duty are Mr. Frank Hurley, Mr. Linthus McVay, and Mr. J. P. Jinright.

Skilled Specialists Serve Student Needs

Head nurse, Mrs. James Reynolds, joined the Health Center's staff last September.

The College Dining Hall, under the direction of Mrs. Martha Ward, serves three meals daily to all students who live on campus. The staff is composed of the largest number of student workers employed here at Troy State.

The Mary E. Rich Health Center, often called the infirmary, is one of the more important campus divisions and also one of the most necessary. If a student should become ill, he can go to the infirmary where there is always at least one registered nurse on duty.

The competent nurses, Judith Bassett, Ann Dunn, and Syble Dubose, work around the clock to keep Troy State healthy.

Mrs. Martha Ward, head dietitian, is constantly searching for improvements in food preparation.

Mrs. Green, Mrs. Wilks, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Barron, Mrs. Heron, and Mr. Wilks comprise a vital part of the dining hall staff.

Mrs. Wease Rose, postmistress, checks the postage for a student.

Mrs. Dot Starling, bookstore manager, prepares a book order.

Student Center Vital to Campus Life

Vital to student life at TSC are three facilities: the bookstore, the post office, and the student center housed in C. B. Smith Hall. The bookstore enables the students to buy the articles which are so necessary for their daily activities. Students are always eager to visit the post office because it keeps them up to date on the events occurring at home and elsewhere. After checking their mail, students visit the student center to buy snacks between classes.

Mrs. Maggie Kyzar cashes one of the many checks cashed daily by students.

Mrs. Entys Clements is one of the three full-time employees in the bookstore.

Mrs. Mary Spencer directs the Student Center snack bar.

Mrs. Neuman (shown), Mrs. Price, Mrs. Johnston, and Mrs. Stinson serve at the snack bar.

Creative Exhibits Displayed by Artists

The Art Department of Troy State College which is directed by Dr. Robert Paxson is committed to the proposition that art is an essential aspect of the human enterprise, that it is a basic factor in the broad spectrum of human experience. Each student is required to take 3 hours of art so he will better understand how it affects one's culture.

As a major factor in the education of its students, the department maintains an active schedule of exhibitions in the Art Gallery. The department also features guest speakers, special seminars, and important art films throughout the academic year.

Art students also support and maintain an active honorary fraternity, Alpha Rho Tau, which plays an important role in its sponsorship of awards, special exhibits and social events.

Department head, Dr. Robert Paxson, keeps abreast of the latest art materials.

Discussing a picture for the art exhibit are Mr. Mark Brewton and Mr. William Lower.

Mr. Edwin Walter is widely known for his glass work.

Mrs. Alice Thornton, Mrs. Pat Johnson, and Mrs. June Croslin find an amusing error in a student's pottery work.

Over One-Fourth of Students

Mr. Hatten adds interest to his lectures through the use of outside materials.

Although Mr. T. D. Hicks has an extremely busy schedule, he always finds time to aid students.

Mr. Stewart contemplates an upcoming exam.

Mr. Davidson and Mr. Batchelor share a vital point in classroom study.

Enroll in Business Department.

The most rapidly growing department in recent years has been the Business Department, which is headed by Dr. D. L. Howell. The 700 students now enrolled as Business Majors constitute approximately 28 per cent of the total enrollment of this college.

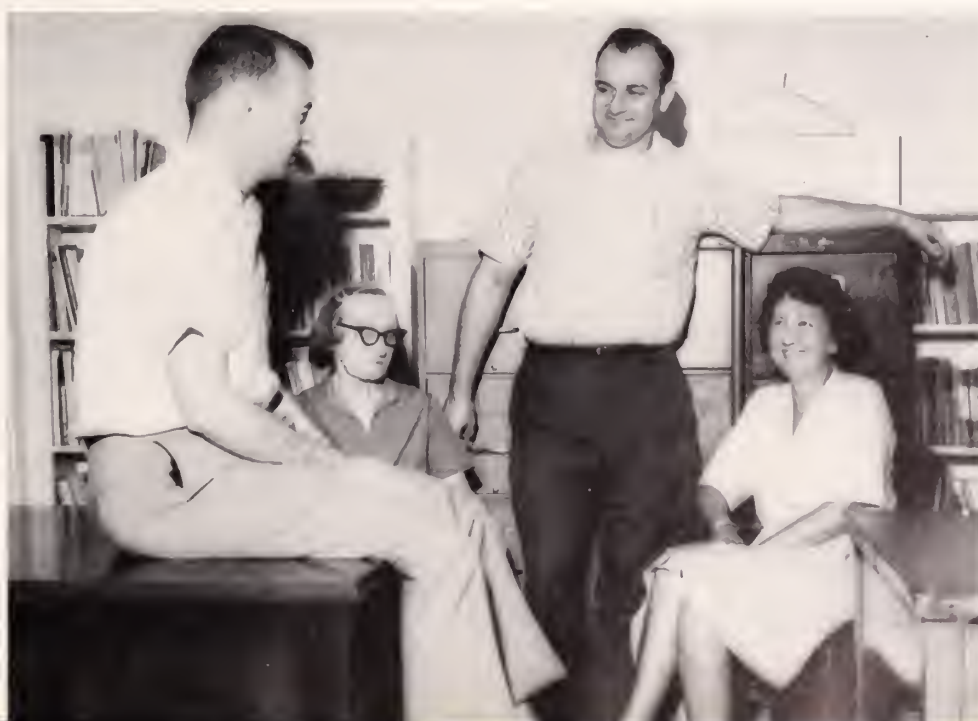

The faculty is in the process of upgrading the curriculum and courses now offered. This will be done by reducing the number of courses available. The requirements will become more rigid so that a graduate will be eligible for admission to the graduate schools of business.

Mr. Taylor prepares an accounting exam for his students.

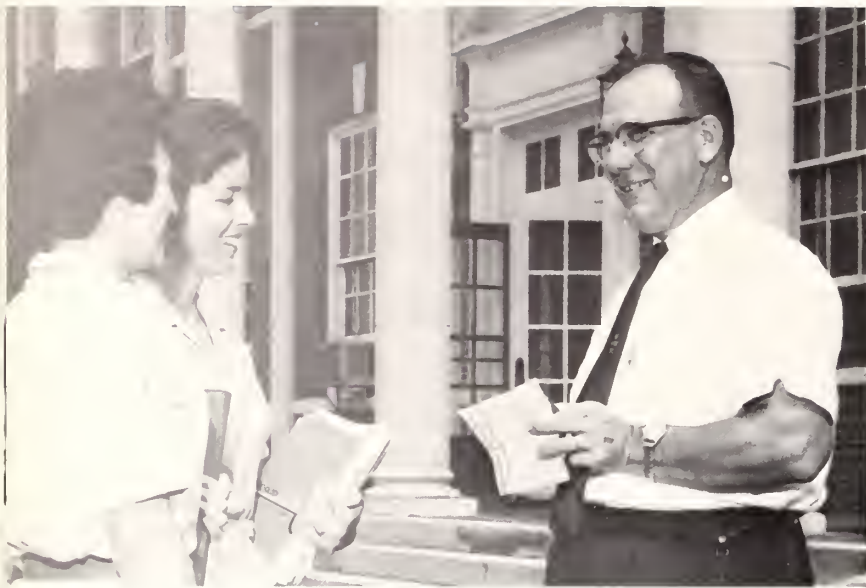

Because of his interest in his students, Mr. Sirmon often checks their personal folders.

A leisurely chat between classes is enjoyed by Mr. Walters, Mrs. Clipson, Miss Trantum, and Mr. Campbell.

Dr. Paul Lewis heads the Education and Psychology Department.

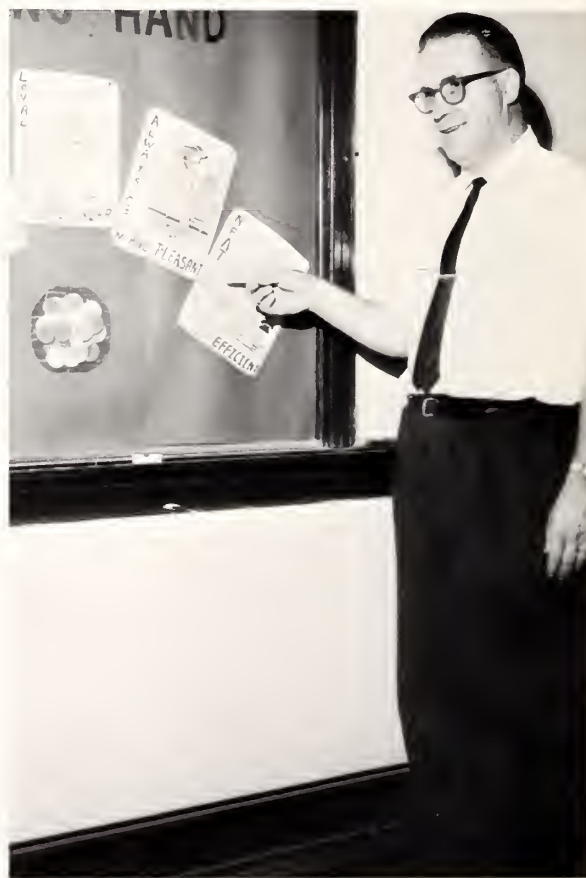

Previewing one of his many films and slides is Dr. Harris Harvill.

Education and Psychology

Mrs. Tex Whaley supervises the off campus elementary student teachers.

Dr. Horace Nelson, Director of Student Teaching points out the interesting parts of a student's bulletin board.

Returning from a day on the field is Mr. Lester Stewart, College Supervisor of Student Teaching.

Mr. Richard Boyce pauses after his last class to discuss a topic with a student.

Checking on the latest standardized test is Dr. Josephine Warner.

Provides New Teachers.

The Education and Psychology Department of TSC, directed by Dr. Paul Lewis, is staffed with a faculty of carefully chosen, experienced and well-trained instructors who attempt to meet the ever-increasing demand for the very best teachers. Troy State takes great pride in this department and its efforts to prepare professional educators who excell in all phases of teaching.

The Laboratory School with Mrs. Foy Cummings as principal prepares professional educators through actual teaching experiences under the supervision of an outstanding instructor. There are 188 students enrolled in the six grades of the school. The regular six teachers have three students to assist them each quarter so that each child is assured of individual attention. There are many teaching aids, such as movie cameras and projectors, with which to work.

Mrs. Foy Cummings always finds time as Principal of Lab. School to talk with pupils.

Dr. Jerry Haynes discusses an academic problem with a colleague.

The program of Graduate Study at Troy State is aimed at providing advanced studies leading to the Master of Science degree in Education and is directed by Dr. Paul Lewis. There are two major fields, elementary education and secondary education. Secondary education majors must complete an academic minor in one of the following fields: English, Health and Physical Education, History and Social Studies, or Science.

In order to enroll in this Graduate Division, a student must have an overall undergraduate grade average of 1.5 and must have a minimum composite score of 800 on the Graduate Record Examination Verbal Ability Test and one of the advanced tests. There are approximately 75 students enrolled in this Division now.

English Department

Dr. Philip Wade is the newest department head at Troy State.

Preparing for the day's activities are Mrs. Marilyn Sirmon, Mrs. Thelma Goodwin, and Mrs. Lucille Mussleman.

Dr. Joseph James checks a new text for possible use in French class.

Dr. Theo Dalton answers a student concerning her last test.

Comparing methods of teaching are Mrs. Dorothy Adams, Dr. Jenette Rosenberg, and Mrs. Mary Lockridge.

Under New Direction

The English, Speech, and Foreign Language Department has made many important advances under the direction of its new department head, Dr. Philip Wade.

Because every student seeking any type of degree from this college is required to take eighteen hours of English, the department seeks to encourage an active interest and participation in learning the language, the people who have been important to its development, and the influences of the language upon the times in which we now live.

Mrs. Lucille Boyd surveys new texts for resource material.

Mrs. Frances Murrell shows Mrs. M. Study Slater and Mrs. Frances Byrd one of her student's best papers.

Pondering over student's grades is Mrs. Betty Thornton.

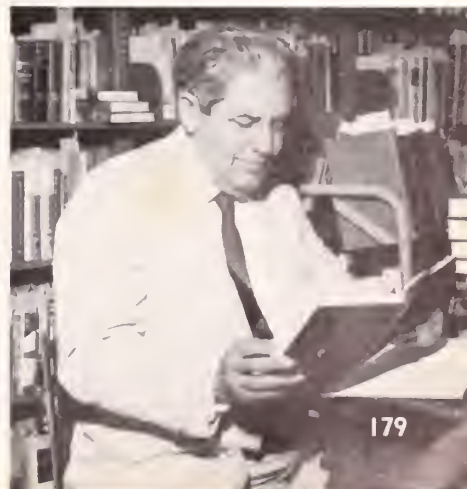

Mr. Wallace Waites, speech instructor, also serves as faculty advisor of student publications.

Mr. Jack Barefield checks scripts for the next playwright production.

Dr. Luis de Feria adds much to his classes by his many experiences.

Future plans of the department are discussed by Mr. Billy Williams and Dr. Earl Watson, Director.

Mr. John Archer looks toward the future regarding Troy State's basketball team.

P.E. Department Emphasizes

Mr. Preston Griffin, the newest addition to the staff, coaches the tennis team.

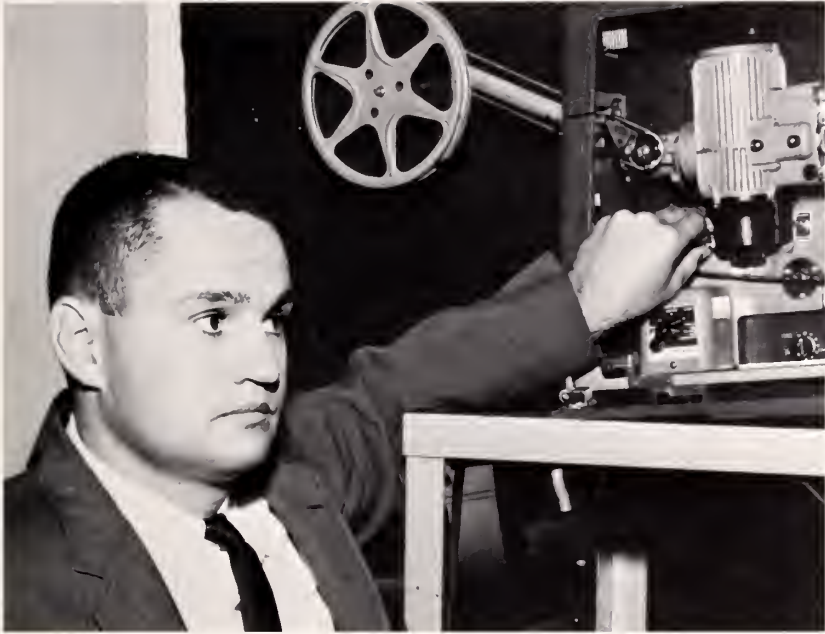

One of Troy State's best known departments, the Health, Physical Education, and Recreation Department, has attracted students from all over the nation. Under the direction of Dr. Earl Watson, this department has made many outstanding contributions to the advancement of our great institution.

Miss Ginger Branham and Mrs. Shirley Canaday are constantly seeking the latest developments in Physical Education courses.

The improvement of skills through the use of films is planned by Mr. Rudy Argenti.

Mrs. Gracie Sauers admires one of the many trophies that has been won by W.A.A.

Physical Fitness

This department believes that a student must be in good physical condition so he can maintain a good academic status; therefore, a student must take two individual sports, two team sports, and two rhythm courses before graduation.

Distance running is the favorite pastime of track coach, Mr. Nick Costes.

Methods of teaching are compared by Mrs. Van Watson and Miss Mary Estes.

Dr. William Clipson examines the film strip from Troy's last football game.

Largest Ratio of

Dr. Leonard Trapp, often called a walking encyclopedia, is the very capable head of the History Department.

Mr. Lloyd Williams reads a report prepared by a geography student.

Mr. Robert Styons relieves his tension after a hard day of classes.

Mr. Grady Post, who is new in the History Department, checks his class history notes.

Mr. Paul Mussleman is well known for his concern of good government.

Mr. Patrick Harris' deep interest in history assures his students of memorable lectures.

Doctorates Found in History

Headed by Dr. Leonard Trapp, the History Department strives to train students majoring in History to become more useful citizens in our changing world by learning to utilize human and material sources. The largest ratio of doctoral degrees on our campus will be found in the History Department.

Since each TSC student is required to take a minimum of fifteen hours in this area to meet the general education degree stipulations, this department plays a large role in class life.

Mr. Cloyd Paskins lectures to his classes on recent Russian History.

Dr. H. E. Sterkx, right, entertains his fellow instructor, Dr. Brooks Thompson.

Dr. Timothy McDonald uses maps to emphasize the strong points of his lectures.

Geography becomes interesting and vivid when taught by Dr. Raymond Deming.

Math Department Increases in Importance

The head of the eight member Math Department, Mr. Virgil Collins, finds a few moments to pause during the day.

Mr. John Lee and Mr. James O'Neal laugh about a humorous incident of the last period.

Discussing the modern Math methods are Mr. Joe Walker and Mr. Jerry Hattaway.

The training of Pre-Engineering students and Math majors is an important duty of the Math Department, which is under the direction of Mr. Virgil Collins. This department also strives to give basic mathematical training, which has become a must in many fields, to the students enrolled in its courses. In this age of advanced technology, the pramatic value of mathematics is a rapidly increasing one, and the role of the Math Department in our college program will become increasingly important both in purpose and in practice.

Mr. Charles Norris and Mr. James Ray relax from hectic lecture schedules for a moment.

Mr. James Soles checking test papers.

Dr. Paul Vollrath prepares for one of his classes.

Mr. Johnny Long directs the new "Sound of the South."

Private piano lessons are taught by Mrs. Violet Ervin.

Music Department Continues to Grow

Troy State College has long been recognized for its outstanding Music Department. Headed by Dr. Charles Farmer, this department continues to meet the needs of those students who are interested in learning about their subject from the modern point of view.

There are many organizations which relate directly to the Music Department, such as the Collegiate Singers, Choir, and Band. At Christmastime the Collegiate Singers' voices were broadcast from New York over Mutual Network to over 500 radio stations, including those in Puerto Rico, Guam, and the Virgin Islands.

The Red Wave Marching Band has made extensive improvements under the direction of Bandmaster Johnny Long, who joined our faculty this year after serving as Band Director at Robert E. Lee High School.

Dr. Charles V. Farmer heads the Music Department.

Miss Norma Holloway, voice instructor, is the newest member of the music staff.

Mrs. Lyra Crapps and Miss Adrienne Auville take a moment from their busy schedule to relax.

Mrs. Olivia Rainer and Mr. Charles Calkins are full time instructors in the department.

Science Department

Dr. W. T. Wilks heads the 19 man Science Department.

The Science Department, which is headed by Dr. W. T. Wilks, is making many important technical improvements. An extension to the Science Building, McCall Hall, that will be completed in the near future will house advanced physics and chemistry laboratories.

John H. Roberts and W. D. McLaughlin prepare to demonstrate an internal combustion engine.

Discussing the human ear are Miss Mazie Calvert and Mr. W. T. Thornton.

Dr. Ernest Riggsby in science education, lectures to class.

Dr. Robert Dietz proudly shows Mr. Terry Myers and Mrs. Winnifred Makinen through his greenhouse.

Plans Building Addition

Every student on the campus must take 24 hours of general science courses before he will be allowed to earn his B.A. or B.S. degree from this college. This program is designed to keep Troy State students informed and up to date on this constantly changing subject.

Dr. D. C. Widdowson and Mr. Wayne Adams discuss parts of human anatomy.

Hectic schedules extend beyond the classroom for Mr. Orville Schomberg and Miss L. Forrester.

Mr. G. O. Spencer demonstrates as he lectures to his Physics and Sophomore Science classes.

Discussing chemistry laboratory work are Mr. John Muller, Dr. Edward Ward, Dr. Sammy Ingram, and assistant Bill Faircloth.

Troy State's Library Houses

Mr. Kenneth Croslin, Head Librarian, has spent many hours planning for the new library.

The Troy State College library, housed in the Clarence L. McCarthy Building on the west side of the campus, is under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Croslin.

Mr. Croslin and the members of the library staff welcome students and faculty members and assist them in using its facilities, not only for the preparation of class assignments and research, but also for the enjoyment of recreational and cultural reading.

Vast numbers of newspapers, periodicals, and books are easily accessible to the students. The listening center and numerous study rooms, are also located in this building. Our library makes important contributions to the ambitious students who wish to use its limitless sources of knowledge.

Mrs. Frankie Muller, Mrs. Pauline Williams, and Mrs. R. V. Hudson enjoy looking over the latest books purchased by the library.

Associate Librarian Mrs. Thelma Mershon reviews one of the newest acquisitions.

Mrs. Nina Swain, known by all the students, works at the check-out desk.

Over 58,000 Volumes

Cataloguing all new material is the job of Mrs. Lucy White.

Miss Ethel Sanders is the college's reference librarian.

Mrs. Gloria Sawyer, Mrs. Barbara Higdon, Mrs. Gertrude Parnell and Mrs. Carol Bell make up the clerical staff in the library.
